Exhibitor Spotlight

Abby Marry's passion for horses began around age 6 when she took a class offered by community education that promised to teach her how to care for and ride a horse. Abby's first lesson resulted in tears because the horse was biting her as she led him around the pasture. The tears were from fear...fear that her parents wouldn't let her ride again. That's when the equestrian bug bit her. It was the summer of 2011 when Abby's neighbor recommended a place up the road named Cozy Cole Farm for lessons. This is when one of the most influential people and a very special horse would enter Abby's life and change it forever. Under Doosie Cole's watchful eye, Abby practiced and learned to ride hunt seat, saddle seat and any horse that Doosie would ask her to ride. It didn't take long before Abby was competing in MAP academy shows and realized how fun it was to show. Abby soon fell head over hooves for a horse named Cozy Coles Jordan and the two became quite a team. In 2015, on Abby's 12th birthday her dream came true and Jordan was now a permanent part of the family. The duo went on to win the title of MJMHA Walk/Trot Hunter Pleasure Champion and also Walk/Trot Hunt Seat Equitation Champion. Abby's dream was to show her mare on the woodchips in OKC at the Morgan Grand National & World Championship. In 2016, Abby and Jordan now both 13, trotted their way into the Top 10 for Grand National Pleasure and Equitation and accomplished Abby's dreams of competing on the woodchips. In addition, Abby made new friends with the exceptional riders and trainers at Twin Elm who adopted her and Jordan for the trip of a lifetime to OKC. Passion, practice, an exceptional teacher Doosie Cole and the love of a horse have made Abby the rider she is today.
